

HORSE-RIDING RULES

INSURANCE:

A riding accident insurance compulsory, CR, emergency hospitalization and repatriation. Ask your insurance certificate as a recreational riding what is supported and then provide us prior to arrival.

Also ask them what are the Fortaleza hospitals with which they have support agreements.

Although no accidents were reported, it is always better to prevent.

WARNINGS:

You will not be framed as a stud or a riding center in Europe, you are in Brazil as early twentieth century in the United States.

These are vaqueros (Brazilian cowboys) who ensure the safety of rides and not instructors.

Coaching is required before mounting the saddle, Delphine will ensure you and follow you rides.

The horses are get out, prepared and washed before each ride. In case of last minute cancellation by a rider, no refund will be possible.

EQUIPMENT:

There's no equipment provided: bombs, boots and protections are at your discretion. You can perfectly do without if you want.

We recommend wearing a brimmed hat, sunglasses, heavy canvas pants, ankle boots and sport shirt to protect you from the sun and straps.

A slight gourd that can attach to the saddle of the horse will be welcome.

Australian type stool with a handle at the front or English type for the more experienced. Hackamores or mores following horses hooves or without shackles.

HORSES

Quarter Mile race (Quarto Milha, in Portuguese), it is the first horses to be introduced in North America in 1600, brought from Arabia and Turkey by Spanish explorers and traders. The selected stallions were then bred with English mares in 1611. The mixture produces compact horses with strong and functional muscles for short distances, faster than any other race.

Then the horse was specialized in working with livestock. On weekends, the settlers had fun racing in the streets near the plantations, a distance of a quarter mile (402 meters), which gave the name of the horse.

In 1955, Swift-King Ranch (SKR) imported six horses in the United States in Brazil, from its US parent, the famous King Ranch in Texas, the largest US farm. Like many Brazilian farmers, bankers and businessmen had the opportunity to know and Quarto Mile.

The Quarter Horse then spread to Brazil in particular as a sport horse for racing and vaquejades.

It is a robust horse chestnut generally dress, bay or gray, to wither height from 1.70 to 1.75 meters, performance for jumping, dressage and eventing.

On a quiet and attentive to his rider, he is not deceitful and easily directs.

RIDES:

The rides are from 2 hours to 3 hours following your endurance level. They are punctuated by a refreshments break, swim or lunch following the organization of each ride.

Several possible routes between bush, beaches, marshes, dunes depending seasons and your shape.

Groups with different levels gallops on the beaches are organized so that beginners are safe.

We favor, that said, the same level groups so that the walks were regular rhythm.

LEVEL REQUIRED TO US CONFIRM

- Beginners accepted if already first contact with horses and without crippling fear.

Coaching at the Fazenda then following outputs.

- Intermediate 1, with little apprehension:

3 gaits: walk, trot, gallop, European quiet type rides.

Coaching mandatory for a gallop on the beaches.

- Intermediate 2 without apprehension:

3 gaits: walk, trot, gallop, European quiet type rides.

Coaching mandatory for a gallop on the beaches.

- confirmed:

All speeds which gallops trip and coasting.

Castelo Vendom disclaims any liability in case of accident and cancellation that would not of his making.

Thank you kindly print this document, to date, sign, include your full name and provide it to us before arrival.

I did read the document and i do approve all parties.

Dated :

Name:

Signature

First name: